TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading -- After Adam and Eve eat of the forbidden fruit, the LORD God puts enmity between the serpent and the woman (Genesis 3:9-15).
 Psalm -- With the Lord there is mercy, and fullness of redemption (Psalm 130).
 Second Reading -- We have an eternal dwelling from God, not made with hands (2 Corinthians 4:13 -- 5:1).
 Gospel -- "Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother" (Mark 3:20-35).

The English translation of the Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass (c) 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy

SUNDAY PROGRAM
 It is only the second week of June and summer break has just begun for school students, but it is not too early to begin thinking about Faith Formation classes in the fall (no, really!).

We will be implementing a few changes this fall for our Children's Sunday classes. The program is a lectionary based curriculum that introduces basic concepts and beliefs of the Catholic Church, and invites participation of families in the process through take-home pages and activities.

Sacramental preparation will be done at home by the families, with meetings and support from the Faith Formation staff. While this approach is different from what we have done in previous years, we feel that it is important to have families actively involved in this special time in their children's formation. Just a reminder, if your child was confirmed through the restored order, it does not mean they are "done" learning about their faith; it is a lifelong process. More information about our Sunday program will be in the bulletin in the coming weeks, so watch this space for more information.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

We are seeking volunteers to teach our Sunday Children's program this fall. This is a weekly commitment from mid-September through the end of April. Volunteers are needed for grades K-1, 2-3, 4-5, 6 and Middle School/Confirmation. The success of our Sunday program depends on our dedicated volunteers, without whom the program does not run. Please give prayerful consideration to sharing your gifts with our young people. Training is provided. For more information, please contact Laurie Lopez at 303.499.7744, x 103 or at laurie.smdpchurch@gmail.com.

BAPTISM PREPARATION

We will begin offering baptism preparation classes on a regular quarterly basis. Our next baptism class will be on Sunday, July 15 at noon. Parents must be registered members of St. Martin's for 3 months prior to the scheduled baptism. Parents and godparents must attend a class. Godparents must be at least 16 years of age, and be confirmed, practicing Catholics in good standing with the church. For more information and to register, please contact Fr Jim or Laurie Lopez at the parish office.

MAMA GRIZZLY BEAR

More than any mama grizzly bear, God is ferociously protective of us. Certainly Adam and Eve must accept the consequences for their bad behavior, but God lashes out first and foremost at the serpent, the one who caused them to sin. God is fair, and God is tender. "As a mother comforts her child," says the Lord, "so I will comfort you" (Isaiah 66:13). Knowing God's protective love for us, we can echo today's Psalm 130 whenever we confront distress: "Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice!" Even if, like Adam and Eve, we cause our own suffering, we believe God will always show both might and mercy if we turn to the Lord for help and comfort.

PROPHETIC LIVING

The Corinthians knew what it was like to experience distress and suffering, much of which they caused themselves. Their Christian community, founded not twenty years after Jesus' death, faced heart-wrenching disagreements and scandalous behavior. To encourage them, Saint Paul wrote that their "momentary light affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison." Saint Paul does not deny their suffering. He does not pretend being a Christian is easy. Instead, he invites the Corinthians to accept their difficulties and put them in perspective: the heaviest burden on earth weighs nothing compared to the mighty glory God has prepared for us in heaven. Living with this perspective makes us prophets. A prophet speaks God's truth to the world and points God's people back to the Lord. When we live in prophetic hope, believing in God's eternal glory, we remind the world of God's mighty, merciful plans for humanity. Like Saint Paul, we can encourage others to endure suffering bravely and not to grow weary doing God's will. Jesus promises that if we do the will of God, we are his "brother and
