SUNDAY PROGRAM

As we announced earlier, we will be implementing a few changes this fall for our Children's Sunday classes. The program is a lectionary based curriculum that introduces basic concepts and beliefs of the Catholic Church, and invites participation of families in the process through take-home pages and activities. Registration forms will be mailed to all families who were enrolled in our program for the 2017-18 school year the week of July 1. Families who will be in Year 2 of preparation for the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation will continue as planned, but will prepare for these sacraments at home within the family. All students preparing for sacraments this year must be enrolled in the Sunday program in addition to preparing for sacraments. We will begin formal registration after all the weekend Masses beginning on August 4, 2018. For more information, please contact Laurie at the parish office, or via email at laurie@smdpchurch.org. Registration forms can also be found online at www.smdpchurch.org.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

We are seeking volunteers to teach our Sunday Children's program this fall. This is a weekly commitment from mid-September through the end of April. Volunteers are needed for grades K-1, 2-3, 4-5, 6 and Middle School/Confirmation. The success of our Sunday program depends on our dedicated volunteers, without whom the program does not run. Please give prayerful consideration to sharing your gifts with our young people. Training is provided. For more information, please contact Laurie Lopez at 303.499.7744, x 103 or at laurie.smdpchurch@gmail.com.

BAPTISM PREPARATION

We will begin offering baptism preparation classes on a regular quarterly basis. Our next baptism class will be on Sunday, July 15 at noon. Parents must be registered members of St. Martin's for 3 months prior to the scheduled baptism. Parents must attend a class. Godparents must be at least 16 years of age, and be confirmed, practicing

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

How many times were you told as a child, and have since told your own children, that true wisdom comes from learning when to keep your mouth shut? That's a central lesson of our lives, and most of us feel enormous gratitude for the many times we wanted to say something horrible, and didn't. That's true maturity, and society functions so much better when people exercise that discipline. Ahem. But here's the question: when is it holy and right to speak up? I admit that I congratulate myself every night, when I make my examen, that I showed such maturity in staying quiet in situations where I might have wanted to speak. Hey, I didn't make any waves. And there go my baptism and confirmation vows, right out the window.

I don't know how I missed it for years and years, but the actual image of Jesus that emerges now from the distortions of my youth is One who took issue with the religious and political authorities, and those who were profiting because of them. He put his life at risk—and yes, died terribly for it—every time he spoke, when it was so much smarter to stay silent. Jesus the Prophet broke all the rules. He healed on the Sabbath. He ate with sinners. He touched the "unclean." He even went into the Temple and discharged those who were cheating the poor. And when he came into Jerusalem the week before his death, he came on a colt, a beast of burden, an animal of peace. The Romans, of course, entering from the west at that same time, came in on their war horses.

Oh, Jesus. How did we miss you?

How has your image of who Jesus truly is changed

CELEBRATE LIFE

"[Religious] freedom remains one of America's most precious possessions. And, as my brothers, the United States Bishops, have reminded us, all are called to be vigilant, precisely as good citizens, to preserve and defend that freedom from everything that would threaten or compromise it."

Pope Francis, "Address on the South Lawn of the White House," September 23,
